ABIGAIL AFI SEYRAM LORDSON-BANINI

LORDSON BANINI

DESIGNER'S BIO

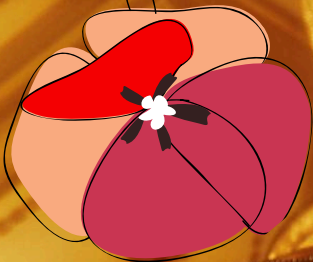

Lordson Banini is a vision and dream of a young lady, Abigail Afi Seyram Lordson-Banini.

Abigail, a native of the Republic of Ghana, moved to the United States when she was 16. She earned a bachelor's degree in Business Administration, Marketing in 2015 from Loyola University, Maryland. After that, she attended the Fashion Institute of Design and Merchandising in Los Angeles with a professional degree in Apparel Industry Management in 2016.

Abigail, is a lady who finds happiness and joy in her creativity. During a time in her life when everything seemed unclear, the distraction of keeping herself busy with homemade crafts became more of a passion than a hobby. That was when she realized this was what she was meant for and never looked back.

Her vision of Lordson Banini is a blend of luxury and culture in garments for special events. Her goal is not only to dress the modern woman but also to provide garments that will let the contemporary woman stand out with confidence, class, and sexiness.
